Center for Self Leadership, IFS Therapy Training (Official...

The Internal Family Systems Model (IFS) is an integrative approach to individual psychotherapy developed by Richard C. Schwartz. It combines systems thinking with the view that mind is made up of relatively discrete subpersonalities each with its own viewpoint and qualities. IFS uses family systems theory to understand how these collections of subpersonalities are organized.

The Center for Self Leadership is pleased to present the 28th Annual IFS Conference in Denver, Colorado. This conference marks an exciting year for the IFS Community as we travel west from Providence. We are thrilled to spend 9 years in New England.

Internal Family Systems Therapy (IFS) - APA

Internal Family Systems (IFS) therapy offers a valuable model which identifies three common categories of parts: exiles, managers, and firefigters. Exiles carry the burdens of trauma including the emotions and memories. Managers work to stay in control of vulnerable feelings often by working hard or manifesting as a relentless inner critic. Firefigters "act out" with addictions or self...
